

...One of the best talks I have heard".
R.. Thurman.

Creating Peace in a Violent World

HH 14th Dalai Lama is the world's foremost living advocate for non violent communication and conflict resolution. He travels extensively meeting with people of all faiths and political beliefs; spreading His message of peace, compassion and mindfulness. At other times, He has referred to himself as a "simple monk" repeatedly stating "My religion is kindness".

The DVD 2006/color/110 min

- Contents: An hour and a half of a brilliant talk followed by a Q & A.
- Native American Blessing at the beginning.

- Introduction by Prof. Robert Thurman
- September 19, 2005, not long after Hurricane Katrina
- The Place: Tucson Convention Center
- Audience: 8,000
- Host: Arizona Friends of Tibet

All proceeds of this production will go to the Tibetan Cultural Center in Bloomington, Indiana. A project of His Holiness, The Dalai Lama, initiated by His brother, Professor Norbu Taktser Rimpoche.

For more information about the Tibetan Cultural Center please visit:

arizona-friends-of-tibet.org
AllPlanet.com

The Office of Tibet

Copyright & Trademark 2006

produced by Galester Franklin
ALL PLANET NETWORK
a division of All Planet Inc.

Creating Peace

HIS HOLINESS THE 14th
DALAI LAMA

DVD
VIDEO

HIS HOLINESS THE FOURTEENTH DALAI LAMA

Creating Peace in a Violent World

Tools for living joyfully and serenely on a chaotic planet

2006/Color/110 min

The Office of Tibet

©Copyright & TM 2006